Curlers All Set to Stage One of Biggest Carnivals on Record Locally on Saturday And Monday

Tight Race Among Ticket Sellers For Cash Prizes: Ham and Bacon and Blanket Booths Expected to Have Big Play.

Many weeks of preparation have been put into the local Curling Club carnival by the curlers and on Saturday and Monday evening next, many booths full of beautiful prizes will be on display.

The major prizes of $100 cash or a bond to be won on Saturday night and the handsome Shetland pony to be won on Monday night have received good support and tickets have been sold throughout the Pass and in Pincher Creek.

Bingo players are to be given chances at some really good prizes, chief among them will be the occasional chairs which will be drawn for one at a time each hour. These handsome chairs are on display now in the Coleman Hardware window.

Hams and bacon will decorate two booths as will a number of blankets. These items have been missing from local carnivals for a number of years.

WHITE LUNCH CAFE TO BE RENOVATED

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Fiedler, of the White Lunch Cafe, travelled to Calgary to make arrangements for the purchase of new equipment for their restaurant.

Mr. Fiedler has planned to renovate the restaurant. The present booths will be taken out, to be replaced by new modern equipment. Some of the space now used in the adjoining stock room will be utilized. A skylight will be installed. The present dining counter will be brought forward a little. The walls and roof will be decorated to give a bright and clean appearance. The present frigidaire will be moved over to the other side of the cafe and extended. Additional comfortable stools have been purchased. Contractor D'Appolonia planned on starting work this week.

HITCH HIKE FROM WINNIPEG

On Tuesday evening, a youth, Dave Gaudreau, 18, of St. Vital, Man., a suburb of Winnipeg, arrived in town, having hitch-hiked his way from Winnipeg, via Calgary, in five days. He is minus his left leg, which has been amputated above the knee, and he walks with the aid of crutches.

He made application at the local Salvation Army canteen for aid and received a bed and on Wednesday morning his breakfast as well as being given some items of clothing.

His mother resides at Winnipeg, while his father is employed at a gold mine in Ontario. He has two brothers at the coast whom he expects to surprise by arriving at their respective homes without warning.

AVERY WALLACE QUITS BUSINESS HERE

Mr. Avery Wallace, proprietor of the Square Deal Second-Hand store, has sold his business to a Mr. S. Caugh, of Pincher Creek.

Mr. Wallace came from Lethbridge one year and nine months ago and set himself up in the second-hand business. In addition to buying and selling, he also repaired various machines, such as sewing machines, etc., and sharpened knives, lawn mowers, etc.

He plans on leaving Coleman within the next week or two and settle either at Fernie or Creston.

MISS ELSIE D'APPOLONIA SECURES B.Sc. DEGREE

LOCAL ELKS INCREASE LODGE MEMBERSHIP

On Thursday last Coleman Elks initiated four new members into their lodge. Following the initiation a very enjoyable social evening was spent.

The lodge is in the very favorable position of possessing many talented artists and by good fortune those artists were in rare form on Thursday evening and the four new members were made at their ease by many popular songs, games, luncheon and refreshments.

REPAIR SKATING RINK AND SCHOOL ROOFS

Contractor Joe D'Appolonia reports that work has started on seal coats to both the public and high school roofs.

The skating rink will have a new roof on the west side, patch the holes on the top deck, and then finish off that portion of the roof left open when the curling rink was demolished.

SECURES HIS B.A. DEGREE

William James Cousins received his Bachelor of Arts degree on completing this year's summer session at the University of Alberta.

Mr. Cousins attended the local school here, and on completing the necessary requirements, became a member of the teaching staff. He obtained his degree the hard way, that is, by attending summer sessions held at the University of Alberta, thereby foregoing the regular summer holiday granted students and teachers. For the past few years, Mr. Cousins has taught subjects in both intermediate and high school, and his interest and ability in music is an asset not only to the school, but to the community as a whole.

Pass Central Committee Set Up To Deal With Victory Celebration; Enoch Williams, Chairman

Pass Committees Held Meeting at Blairmore Monday Evening; Parade Will Last Four Hours.

At Blairmore on Monday evening the chairmen of all committees pertaining to the Victory Celebration met to further discuss plans. Representing Blairmore were G. Derbyshire, H. Houghton, C. D. Rogers, M. W. Cooke, Mack Stigler and A. Balloch. Blairmore, Frank, Bellevue and Hillcrest were also well represented.

Mayor Enoch Williams, of Blairmore, was appointed permanent chairman, and Sam McDowell, of Blairmore, permanent secretary.

Frank, Bellevue and Hillcrest representatives, who have not yet organized their committees, agreed with the Coleman and Blairmore committees that the day the peace flashes are received it will be a day of spontaneous celebration. The day following the news will be one of worship and thanksgiving. The second day following the flashes will be one of point celebration with the Pass committee combining in the huge parade that will visit all towns.

Efforts will be made to have the band now practising at Bellevue and comprising sixteen members, to combine with the Coleman band of twenty or more members. The Pass Cadets will be asked to combine so that a bugle and trumpet band can be organized.

It was agreed that the parade will gather at Coleman at 1 p.m. on the second day following the peace flash. At one o'clock a brief ceremony will be held, details of which will be revealed at a later date.

CHRISTMAS CARDS AVAILABLE AT JOURNAL OFFICE

Oct. 15 has been set by the Postal Department as the deadline for mail addressed to Great Britain. The Journal is now well supplied with a new stock of Christmas Cards and will print private cards in 24 hours notice.

Boxes of 21 cards, unprinted, sell at $1.00. Printed cards with name and address sell at $2.00 for 21. Ensure early Christmas delivery by abiding by the Postal Department's deadline of Oct. 15. Call 209 and a Journal delivery boy will bring a sample box to your home, or call in at The Journal office and inspect the cards at your leisure.

Each town will appoint its own parade marshal, with Sergeant Mudman, RCMP, as chief marshal. The mayors of the respective towns have agreed to call civic holidays for the three days. Since housewives may be caught flat-footed with an empty pantry should the flash come over during the morning hours and the stores close immediately, arrangements are being made with Pass storekeepers to open their stores on the morning of the second day from 8.30 to 12 noon.

No cars will be allowed to park on the main streets of any Pass towns on the afternoon of the big parade. A central committee was chosen, comprising the chairmen of Coleman, Blairmore, Frank, Bellevue and Hillcrest committees. The local town decoration committee urge all businessmen and citizens to prepare now to decorate their premises. Flags, bunting, lights, etc., should be brought down from the attic or up from the cellar and given a thorough inspection.

The Danger Of Inflation

OF THE MANY EVILS which result from war, inflation is one of those which is most injurious to the welfare of a nation. The unusual economic conditions created by war tend to set up that dangerous spiral of rising prices and wages which ultimately ends in complete financial disaster. Almost every country, including Canada, suffered from inflation during the last war, and the lessons learned then have resulted in widespread efforts to avoid this condition again. In Canada, Britain, and the United States, measures have been taken to control prices and wages and to prevent unwarranted increases in either of these items.

Public Support Has Been Given

Great difficulties stand in the way of exercising such extensive control, and all the nations which have undertaken such schemes have not met with complete success. They have, however, maintained much greater economic stability than those nations which did not attempt to control the situation. In Canada, the public has been aware, since the beginning of the war, of the dangers of inflation, and there has been splendid co-operation on the part of the people in avoiding this danger. For some time now, there has been an extensive system of government control, aimed at preventing inflation, but it is agreed that the interest and support of the public has been a most important factor in the success of that effort here.

People Must Be Patient

Many of the controls which have been enforced in order to ensure economic stability are, of necessity, unpleasant, and as world conditions generally become more normal, there is a tendency on the part of many people to believe that it should no longer be necessary to continue these restrictions. It must be kept in mind, however, that the immediate post-war years may be as critical, in many ways, as the past five years have been, and that it is useless for anyone to expect a quick return to normal conditions. Patience will be needed, on the part of the public in respect to spending their war savings, and to the lifting of some of the present restrictions, and the average Canadian will no doubt continue to see the wisdom of continued caution in these matters.

Will Need Horses

Canada Will Play Large Part In Supplying Europe

Canadian breeding stock may play a large part in rebuilding the livestock herds of Europe when the war is over. Particularly in the restoration of farm power, the horse will be required, and some idea of the coming demand for horses may be gained from the estimates of the declining numbers of horses in the various countries since the war began. It is estimated that the numbers of horses in Britain, Holland, and Belgium have been reduced by half, in Russia by one third, and that only one third of the original numbers of horses has been left in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, and Greece. Germany, by plundering the other nations, is believed to have as many horses, if not more, than when the war began. However, say the authorities, the task of supplying farm power to help in the restoration of agriculture in the devastated countries is going to be a tremendous one and is expected to result in a strong demand for Canadian horses for some time to come.

There are 5,118 Smiths in the Canadian Army. Three hundred and sixty-two of these are William Smiths, of whom 44 come from Toronto. The Browns number 3,071, while the Joneses are only 1,693. It should be no difficulty for the Smiths and the Browns to keep up with the Joneses in this case.

A.—The next ration book will be issued to the public during the week of October 14 to 21.

Please send your questions or your request for the pamphlet "Consumer's News" or the Blue Book (The book in which you keep track of your rationing) to the nearest Wartime Prices and Trade Board office in your province.

Looking For Markets

China's Tea Trade Will Likely Revive After The War

The Chinese News Service says tea experts are looking forward optimistically to the revival of China's tea trade after the war.

China has wide tea-producing areas and the production of tea has not been severely hit by the war.

They believe that Chinese tea will enjoy a booming market three or four years after the war when China's seaports are reopened.

All Dressed Up With Plenty To Do

This is Lance Corporal Jacqueline (Butch) Irvine, of Rouleau, Sask., member of the Canadian Women's Army Corps. "I love driving, especially tractors, but you can't work on a tractor with this swell new outfit, so I'll settle for my half-ton truck," said the Corporal as she posed for this picture in the new outfit issued to C.W.A.C. vehicle drivers. Jacqueline drives a panel truck for the Army. Dressed in the regulation khaki shirt, and brown tie, the familiar cap styled after the famous French Kepie, and the smart new dressy trousers in lightweight serge, four pleats front and back, with a useful "grenade" pocket for orders in front, this girl driver is ready to start her day's work at Army Headquarters in Regina.

Can Get Good Stock

Channel Island Farmers May Have To Import Dairy Cattle

The Channel Islands are famous for their dairy cattle, particularly Jerseys and Guernseys. That has been the breeding ground of pure-bred stock for centuries. Every pure Jersey and Guernsey outside the Channel Islands has an ancestry that can be traced back to there.

The inhabitants of the Channel Islands almost make pets of their cattle. When the Germans invaded the islands many of the small farmers shot their cows rather than let them fall into enemy hands. The Nazis carried away thousands so that their milk and butter might feed their own people.

Recently, a number of refugees from the island of Alderney met in London to consider what they can do to restore their herds. In a letter to the Times, Henry Gauvain, chairman of the Alderney relief organization stated that restoration of the original herds, if at all possible, is essential as they attain their full perfection in their native island alone. Future generations, he contends, should be exported therefrom if their peculiar characteristics are to be maintained and improved. There was no tuberculosis among the island herds and surgical tuberculosis of bovine origin does not exist unless contracted elsewhere.

The people of the Channel Islands will not relish the idea of importing stock from Britain, or from Canada and the United States, but if they discover that their herds have been so thinned that they need outside help, they will find that outside breeders will not only be glad to help them, but that the stock is absolutely pedigreed.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

Australia Has Plans

Scheme Would Give The Commonwealth A Great Air Base

The commonwealth government is planning a post-war airline scheme to bring any place in Australia within 24 hours' travel of any other place. It has a plan to establish 22 centres linked by trunk services, each serving a 300-mile radius by air or surface transport.

Airplanes are available, the R.A.F. will provide the trained personnel and only 18 modern air liners will be required—not many more than are already in operation.

The plan in operation would revolutionize life in the remotest areas.—Australian News Letter.

Should Come First

British War Brides Deserve The Warmest Welcome From Canada

British war brides of Canadian soldiers have been arriving in Canada for the past year or two and many more will come.

No class of immigrant should be more welcome in this country than representatives of the gallant British people who endured and withstood the worst that a frenzied Nazi hate could send them in the height of German success.

It is all right to provide a haven in this country for refugees from Central Europe, persecuted by the Nazis, but our own kith and kin should come first. The wives of Canadian soldiers constitute a first lien on our hospitality.—Calgary Herald.

UNUSUAL OCCUPATION—

Painting stage scenery for the Canadian Army Show is the unusual occupation of CWAC artist L. Cpl. Molly Lamb of Vancouver, B.C. Twenty-two years old, blonde and attractive, Molly made her mark in Canadian art circles last year when three of her paintings were hung in the Toronto Art Gallery, and two more won prizes in the Canadian Army Art Show held in Ottawa a few months ago. She is the daughter of Mrs. A. M. Williams of Galtin Island, B.C.

FIRLOUGH FUN—

Mecca of the firloughed service girl is the beautiful leave centre recently opened at Banff, Alta., in the heart of the Canadian Rockies. Ready scores of Army girls stationed within travelling distance have visited the centre and pronounced it the "finest ever". Operated under the supervision of the Y.W.C.A., the centre offers a wide variety of holiday recreations. Riding stables, tennis courts, golf links and the famous sulphur springs are all within easy walking distance, while nearby are the clear and sparkling waters of Lake Louise and Lake Moraine. Approximately 70 service women a week have been vacationing at this new centre.

Corporal Brenda Campbell, with the C.W.A.C. Overseas and wife of Capt. C. E. Campbell, of Edmonton, Alta., has known war experiences which make her the envy of all the CWACs in her unit. Previous to her enlistment into the C.W.A.C. in 1942, Brenda was a member of the British Auxiliary Territorial Service. In her work as an ack-ack battery plottter, she was successful in bringing down two German planes. One of these, a Ju-88, she watched fall into the sea.

HOME AGAIN—Enlistment in the Canadian Women's Army Corps spelled a return home for Pte. Lucy McCarthy, of Winnipeg. In 1929, when Lucy was just six years old, her family moved into Fort Osborne Barracks, Winnipeg. Where Lucy's father, then Sgt. Sylvester (Mac) McCarthy, was serving with the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry (Permanent Force). She lived in the garrison for 10 years before her father was honourably discharged from military service. Now she is back at Fort Osborne, this time as a resident of "Cwac-ville".

Saving In Space

Square Milk Bottles Are Used In Many United States Cities

After a year's trial, the innovation of square milk bottles in quarts and half-pints at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and other cities in the United States, has proved a success. Basis of the change from round milk bottles was the desire to conserve cold storage space and to increase truck loads. It was found that about 45 per cent. more milk could be stored and considerably more milk be carried in trucks by using new cases, more compact and lighter in make than the conventional type. These cases require about one-third less space inside the truck and save much work and time to the driver. Grocers and retailers say that they can put 36 square quarts on a refrigerator shelf that held only 25 round bottles.

Stayed In Brussels

Belgian Queen Mother Ignored German Instructions To Leave Palace

Belgian Queen Mother Elizabeth ignored German instructions to proceed to Germany when King Leopold was removed in June, and locked herself in her apartment in a wing of Laken Palace, the Exchange Telegraph reported, in a Brussels dispatch.

The Queen Mother was reported to have told the German commander over the telephone that if he wanted to take her to Germany he would have to drag her from the palace. All attempts at persuasion failed—and the Queen stayed in the palace.

ALLIES PLAN TO TURN FORCES INTO FIGHT AGAINST JAPAN JUST AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

QUEBEC.—Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt ended their 11th war meeting, their second in Quebec, and told a press conference they had planned to bring all the forces of "this grand alliance" to bear upon Japan with the utmost rapidity.

But President Roosevelt stressed that definite planning would be delayed since a specific date has not been placed on the next major operation.

That could not be done when the time of unconditional surrender of Germany was so uncertain, but planning had gone as far as possible in times of such swiftly moving events.

Use of the term "unconditional surrender" in respect to Germany was taken by some as evidence that the two leaders had not receded from their Casablanca declaration that such were the only terms upon which a European armistice could be obtained.

The president said there now are plenty of men and plenty of material to drive on Japan were it not for the great problems of space and the difficulty of engaging the enemy.

Both Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill stressed that Canada will fight in the Pacific and continue to fight to the end.

A brief joint statement was issued after the press conference. It merely stated that all aspects of the war had been discussed and quick decisions reached "on all points with regard to the completion of the war in Europe now approaching its final stages, and the destruction of the barbarians of the Pacific."

DATE POSTPONED

Two Pair Of Butter Coupons Affected By New Ruling

OTTAWA.—The prices board has served notice on Canadian housewives that they will have to get along with less butter than they expected between now and the end of the year.

For the fourth time this year the board ordered postponement of the validity date of butter coupons. Order affects two pairs of coupons. Those numbered 80 and 81, which ordinarily would have become good Oct. 5, will not be valid until Oct. 12 and coupons 88 and 89 have been advanced to Dec. 14.

While butter is going to be less plentiful, S. R. Noble, sugar administrator, had a measure of cheering news. He said that while world sugar supplies were "next thing to desperate" no reduction in the ration is expected this year.

Announcing the reduction in butter ration, the board said Canadian butter stocks at Sept. 1 were 11,500,000 pounds below the Sept. 1, 1943, stocks. Early announcement of the cut was made to enable consumers to plan to make their butter purchases last longer.

SHIPPING ACTIVITY ON WEST COAST WILL INCREASE WHEN ALLIES CONCENTRATE ON JAPAN

QUEBEC.—A sharp increase in shipping activity on the Pacific coast—both naval and merchant—is expected to be one of the immediate results of the Quebec victory conference of Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt.

Transfer of British and Canadian warships from Atlantic and European waters to the Pacific and a vast upsurge in the flow of men and munitions to the Far East as the campaign against Japan develops will mean much new business for United States and Canadian ports.

Since the war in Europe began such ports as Halifax and New York have been booming. The defeat of Germany and full emphasis on the Pacific war will bring similar conditions to harbors like San Francisco, Seattle, Vancouver, and probably Prince Rupert, B.C.

While British Columbia ports are too far north to feel the full effect of war needs in the southwest Pacific, a step-up in the war tempo through the entire Pacific zone is certain to spread at least in part to the Canadian harbors.

Emphasis has been placed at the Quebec conference on the huge fleets needed to keep armies in the Pacific supplied. Lord Leathers, British

BASES IN BELGIUM

Are Being Used By Fighting Squadrons From Canada

WITH THE R.C.A.F. IN BELGIUM. At least three Canadian fighter squadrons—the Wildcat, Nomad and City of Ottawa—now are flying from mobile bases in Belgium and taking a heavy toll of enemy Rhine shipping and road traffic, it was disclosed.

They are under command of Group Capt. G. R. McGregor, D.F.C., of Montreal, a veteran of the Battle of Britain.

The Canadians are flying rocketing Typhoons and won the honor of being the first to plaster German territory with their rockets when engaged in shooting up German shipping on the Rhine while flying from Belgian bases.

A few days ago the base where the Canadians are stationed was the landing point for members of the Belgian air force based in Britain, who were permitted to fly to their homeland and visit their families for the first time in four years.

HITLER WARNED

German Industrialists Say Army Can Fight Only Eight Weeks

LONDON.—The Swiss Journal de Geneve said that German industrialists have warned Hitler through the Nazi general staff that the army would be unable to continue fighting more than another eight weeks.

Quoting reports from inside Germany the newspaper said Field Marshal Walter von Model, Nazi commander of the western front, and Col. Gen. Heinz Guderan, chief of staff, in delivering the industrialists' estimate told Hitler the worst must be feared.

FINALLY CONVINCED

German Prisoners Know Now Invasion Was Not Another Dieppe

LETHBRIDGE, Alta.—The Lethbridge Herald said German prisoners of war in Alberta camps are finally convinced that the Allied invasion of France was not "just another Dieppe."

It was only recently they changed their minds after learning of the Allied sweep across France, the freeing of Paris and the march into Belgium. Their arrival of Germans from France at Alberta camps added to the confirmation of news reports.

At first the Germans insisted that the Allies "never could and never would" pierce Germany's system of coastal fortifications and that every attempt would be disastrous for the Allies.

The Herald said it had learned, however, that many of the fanatical Nazis in the camp here still refuse to believe that Rumania and Bulgaria have deserted Hitler and that Allied forces are at Germany's borders.

RATE IS REDUCED

Five Cents Is New Charge For Civilian Airgraph Mail

OTTAWA.—Postmaster General Mulock announced a reduction from 10 to five cents, effective Sept. 15, in the airgraph rate for mail addressed to civilians.

The new rate puts civilian mail on the same basis as mail to the armed forces and applies to mail to any country in which the airgraph service is available. This includes Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, the middle east and a number of countries in Africa. Mail to the armed forces may also be sent by airgraph to France and Italy.

Airgraph—letters on film that is flown to its destination—was first introduced in Canada in 1941.

HALIFAX.—Blackout restrictions in the province of Nova Scotia have been ended.

It is officially announced by the provincial director of civilian defence, Dr. F. R. Davis, that there'll be no further blackouts in the province.

Dr. Davis emphasizes that in all other respects the civilian defence organization will continue to function as usual. He points out that Nova Scotia is still considered a vulnerable area.

MANY POTENTIAL RESOURCES IN NORTHWEST REVEALED BY PACIFIC PLANNING PROJECT

OTTAWA.—Dr. Charles Camsell, deputy minister of mines and resources, said recent investigations in the Northwest have shown important potential resources which may be developed after the war.

Dr. Camsell is Canadian director of the North Pacific planning project which last year undertook a study for Canada and the United States of the north Pacific region comprising Alaska, Yukon territory, northern British Columbia, northern Alberta and the western part of the Mackenzie district of the Northwest Territories.

The study was intended to provide basic information on natural resources and the possibilities of development. Investigations in the Canadian part of the region are being made by the Dominion and provincial governments concerned with natural resources.

Last year the Dominion government sent 33 survey parties into the district to study geology, forests, soils, wild life and water-power as well as carrying out topographic, hydrographic and geodetic surveys.

This year 42 Dominion government parties are in the region expanding the work started last year and adding investigation into fisheries and agricultural possibilities in the Mackenzie river valley.

"These investigations have already indicated areas of probable mineral deposition, areas suitable for agricultural development to meet local needs, areas of timber which can be developed as required and areas suitable for development for recreational and scenic purposes," Dr. Camsell said in a preliminary statement on the findings.

The federal government has reserved an area of 10,000 square miles in southwestern Yukon for the purpose of a national park and the government of British Columbia has reserved the area embracing Muncho lake, the Hot Springs and the so-called Tropical Valley of the Laird river, for recreational purposes," he said.

OTTAWA.—From the time they were first committed to battle Canadian infantry and armor have been relied upon to fight the toughest, and stickiest battle and they have always delivered the goods with great distinction, said Capt. H. A. Hyman, Regina, on his return to Canada.

He said the First Canadian division and the First Armored brigade, with whom he landed in Sicily, have won international renown throughout the cosmopolitan Eighth Army. At a press conference before the break-through to Rome, General Leese, "Monty's" worthy successor to command the Eighth army, told British, American and Canadian war correspondents that first division infantrymen were the best village fighters in the world, and that there was no better armored formation anywhere in the world than the Western Canadian armored brigade.

"I want to pass a word of praise," Captain Hyman said, "for those war correspondents who are covering activities of our fighting men from the front lines. These fellows in battle dress who share enough of the risks and dangers and inconveniences of battle to own a true appreciation of what the men have to endure. They know what it is to be sniped at, bombed, shelled, mortared. When things are moving they put in a very heavy day, bouncing around over the country in jeeps, often over roads exposed to enemy observation posts. Then they return to public relations camp dog tired to begin their real work—to write their stories. I single out the front line reporters because very often their arduous labors are not rewarded by big headlines. The fellow who sits in a plush chair at a base headquarters, who is in a better position to get the broad picture of the war, is the fellow who usually gets the banner headlines. That's because the fellow at the Falaise gap can't hope to get the overall picture as efficiently as the fellow sitting comfortably at supreme headquarters. Leadership given men by their Canadian infantry officers is outstanding. After a big push the officer casualties more often than not are greater, proportionately, than the other ranks. Our officers are always out in front; they don't expect the men to do anything they don't. One regiment lost every one of its officers during the Hitler line break-through. And the men fought magnificently, gallantly. One company lost every officer and N.C.O. on the Hitler line, and a buck private, on his own initiative, rallied the remaining 12 men fought on to the objective, and held the precious ground against superior odds.

"The infantrymen are the heroes of this war as always. They are the guys who have to get so close to the Germans that they can smell their breath. There is absolutely no form of fighting that requires more guts than to go over the top and face a fanatical enemy. And when you look at the war maps, we're doing no better than our forward infantry slit trenches."

TRAITORS TO DIE

LONDON.—Nineteen of 20 Vichy militia men tried by court martial were sentenced to death, the French national radio reported. The 20th was sentenced to 20 years' hard labor in view of extenuating circumstances, the broadcast said.

Theatre Notes

Theatre patrons of the Pass towns are asked to note that starting Monday of this week and continuing through the winter months, the nightly shows will start at 7.30. Poor Ginger Rogers! She can't make up her mind again. If she were not so beautiful and clever, we'd be sorry for her—always in the dark about some man! In the fascinating technicolor drama with music, "Lady in the Dark," which opens Saturday at the Palace theatre, Ginger has three men on her mind, and it isn't until she has some inner dreams—and gets a psychoanalyst to explain them to her—that she knows which to marry.

The eye-filling dreams come to life on the screen as a result of Ginger telling her innermost secrets to the psychoanalyst. In her dreams Ginger is gay and unexpressed. She sings and dances, in contrast to her neurotic self as the inhibited editor of a smart fashion magazine.

A delightful program of brief addresses and snappy songs was brought to a close by a very practical address by the guest of the evening, Rev. Alvin Cooper, BSA, secretary of Young People's Work. Mr. Cooper briefly sketched the development of Trail Ranger and Tu's organization throughout Canada, and dwelt upon the fine results achieved in the physical, moral and spiritual development of Canadian boyhood.

Making Many Changes

New Type Of Diner Planned By Pullman Car Company

Plans for a postwar railway dining car patterned in appointments after a fashionable restaurant are announced by the Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing Company.

Drawings call for tables in the new diner to be placed diagonally, with seats set at a 45-degree angle to the side of the car instead of at right angles as at present. Other innovations would include vibrationless tables, spot ray illumination, linen storage at each table, and inter-car telephone communication.

Tables for two are planned, as well as for four. Although blueprints for the diner show a capacity of 42, instead of the present 48, Ellis W. Test, assistant to the president in charge of engineering and research, said the company anticipates "a far speedier turnover" than in conventional diners because of the greater accessibility of tables under the new floor plan.

New Industry

Idea To Develop Chemicals From Seaweed Is Being Considered

Gulliver found the scientists of Laputa distilling sunbeams from cucumbers. A no less amazing new industry is being developed in Scotland, to derive chemicals from seaweed. In recent years seaweed has been found to have extensive possibilities in relation to the making of textiles, transparent paper, plastics, foodstuffs, sizing material, surgical, medical and dental materials. A Scottish Seaweed Research Association is being formed to look into the possibilities of this new industry in Scotland, under the eyes of the Ministry of Supply and the Scottish Council on Industry. The development commissioners will give pound for pound grants to the association up to a maximum of £25,000 ($100,000). The Engineering Division will maintain and develop a ship specially equipped for the survey and collection of deep sea weeds. St. Thomas Times-Journal.

"They ordered every man to have a coffin," said the French caretaker of the cemetery where there are 753 graves of those members of the Allied force killed in the raid. "They even said you Allies deserved to win that day."

The cemetery, on high grounds outside Dieppe, is beautifully taken care of by the French.

The London Evening Standard says: Boys and girls of Southern England refused to allow flying bombs to interfere with their general and higher school certificate examinations.

SAFE MILK AND WATER

Once more it becomes necessary to call attention to the importance of safe milk and water," the magazine Health, organ of the Health League of Canada, says editorially:

"Everyone in Canada should know that milk which is not pasteurized is never completely safe. Those on vacation especially should realize that milk and water may be a source of disease. It is unnecessary to call attention to the types of disease which may be caused by raw milk or contaminated water. It is sufficient to know that disease may be carried by milk or water and to act accordingly."

"For those vacationing in parts of Canada where milk is not pasteurized, there is a simple method of home pasteurization which properly used is as effective in making milk safe as any more elaborate procedure. All that is necessary is to heat the milk to 145 degrees Fahrenheit in a double boiler, hold it at this temperature for half an hour, and rapidly chill it. The milk should then be kept in a cool place, preferably on ice. Ordinarily it is sufficient to heat the milk on the front of the stove until it reaches the required temperature and then move it to the back of the stove for half an hour before chilling. An ordinary dairy thermometer should be used to check the temperature."

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Birds Of Prey

By KATHRYN M. KEELLY

McClure Newspaper Syndicate

Young Mrs. Carroll dumped the green cooking apples she had just brought from the corner grocery into the sink and splashed water on them preparatory to making a pie. It was nearly eleven o'clock, and soon Mrs. Murphy, her neighbor, would squeeze through the barren hawthorn bushes for her morning chat. Mrs. Murphy considered herself an oracle on love and life, marriage and babies, and she had taken Ellen Carroll under her protective wing from the time Ellen was a bride. Not that Ellen minded, for Mrs. Murphy was a good cook, and she dropped many a valuable hint. In two years Jim Carroll had waxed broad and genial from just such hints.

Mrs. Murphy slammed the kitchen door with a resounding bang, her face red from the icy wind. "Did you remember to bring the suit?" she panted, her voice still holding its County Cork brogue after all these years.

Ellen bent to pull off her friends' snowy rubbers. "Shure," she mimicked. "I forgot all about it. An' what will ye be wantin' suit for?"

Mrs. Murphy smiled down at the reddish brown head fondly. "To feed the birds, to be sure."

Ellen sobered but said lightly, "I thought maybe you meant it. As I thought you'd heard the machine shop is going out on a strike. It'll take a long while to get it settled, Jim says."

Mrs. Murphy clucked sympathetically. "Two bad, too bad. Not much saved, dearie."

"A little. But not enough for a long stretch."

Ellen sieved flour into a yellow bowl, Mrs. Murphy watching with mute approval. Not until the shortening was blended into little flakes did she say earnestly, "You could have more, Ellen, if you weren't feedin' all the tramps in the city."

Ellen's eyes grew round with astonishment. "But they're hungry. I never give them money. It's like you and your birds. I just give them crumbs."

"Birds?" Mrs. Murphy snorted. "Birds of prey, they are. Some day I'll come here to find your head bashed in from one of those birds of yours. It's in the papers every day."

Involuntarily, Ellen shuddered. "I won't let anyone in. I just put hot soup and sandwiches on the step. And then slowly, it sort of destroys your faith in human nature if you cannot share what little you have."

"Well, I'm warnin' you," Mrs. Murphy roared abruptly. "I must be goin'. Big John will be home to lunch. . . . Don't forget to sprinkle some milk on the top crust to make it brown."

Afterward, Ellen pored the apples thoughtfully. How long would the strike last? Just when they were getting on their feet too. The first payment on this white clapnet bungalow had been made. She and Jim had budgeted so carefully. Tears blurred her eyes. She shook them furiously away.

The pie was completed when the front door bell rang. That might be

Jim now, if a strike were called. Ellen wiped her floury hands on her blue checked pinafore uneasily. The bell was a shrill sign of urgency. It wasn't Jim. Through the shimmering rayon curtains, Ellen had a good view of the insistent visitor. Shabbily dressed, his nondescript cap pushed far back on his head, the little man kept his finger on the push button. A tramp! A bum demanding to be fed! Of all the nerve!

"Let him ring," Ellen thought, remembering Mrs. Murphy's warning with quick apprehension. If he'd only go away! But he didn't. The bell clanged intermittently, while Ellen peered fearfully through the curtains.

At last he sat on the icy steps, hugging himself against the blasts of wind that rattled the door. Ellen felt a sharp stab of pity, but it dissolved in her mounting fright.

What was he waiting for? There was something familiar about him. That was Jim's old overcoat he was wearing. Ellen recalled the fellow now, remembered the bleary eyes, the alcohol breath as he told her last year, "You're my wife and baby was swept right away in the flood. Nemo, they were never found, an' I've been goin' around from town to town thinkin' maybe they've been rescued somewhere and couldn't get back home."

Ellen had believed him. She had given him the coat, food, some money to continue his search. For a little while she had carried his tragedy in her heart, praying that he might find his loved ones somewhere.

Now she knew she was a fool to believe. He was back with a different hard luck story probably. And if he kept pushing that bell, she'd call the police.

Ellen returned to the kitchen slowly, a strange heaviness within her heart. You couldn't believe anything or anybody. All those poor souls she had helped had no doubt laughed at her, passed the word through their grapevine that the little woman at 212 Elm Street was a sucker for sob stuff. Mrs. Murphy was right. Birds of prey!

The bell rang again. Two discouraged buzzes. Ellen sid the pie into the oven, wiped the dough from the table-top, wondering if the man were really hungry. He looked so cold.

There was a knock at the back door. For an instant, Ellen's blood curdled. But Mrs. Murphy's familiar "yoo-hoo" set her heart to beating again. Mrs. Murphy burst in, exclaiming excitedly, "Ellen, dearie, do you know what you've done?" She paused dramatically while Ellen shook her head in bewilderment. "Left your key stickin' right in the lock of your front door. Anyone could walk right in and murder you! One of your birds came and told Big John. He rang and rang, he said. He was afraid to go off and leave it there. You mustn't be so careless, Ellen."

A great weight was sliding off Ellen's shoulders. She felt suddenly gay, light-hearted. "One of my birds," she said tenderly. "I wonder where he is."

Mrs. Murphy bristled with importance. "Over eatin' a good hot lunch with Big John. You can't turn down a man like that. Do you know he lost a wife and baby in the flood, poor soul?"

"Yes, I know," Ellen replied in a queer choked voice.

RELIED ON CLOCK

The old saw about your stomach telling you when meal time rolls around doesn't apply to a Buckley Field private. The soldier rushed to the chow line, but was informed by a sergeant that he had been looking at a clock in the War Information room, which gave Eastern War Time instead of Mountain War Time.

In some bird species the young and adults migrate at different times. How the young know what route to take is one of nature's great mysteries.

Damage Was Slight

Paris Suffered Much Less Than London From Air Bombing

More fortunate than London, the city of Paris was spared the fate of heavy damage from the air.

British, Canadian and United States bombers have flown over and around it hundreds of times but held their blows for military targets.

Bomb damage was confined almost entirely to the suburban industrial districts at a minimum cost to civilians. The big railroad yards, airfields and the vast Renault Motor Works and its subsidiary plants were the scenes of greatest destruction.

Two of the best examples of the devastation caused by the Allied bombers—an indication of how large sections of Germany must now look—are the Renault works on the mammoth Vileneuv-St. Georges southwestern edge of Paris and the freight yards outside Vincennes.

The Renault factory is a mass of wrecked and burned out buildings and twisted steel.

A Paris newspaper said the bombing never caused the plant to shut down completely, but "obviously slowed production greatly."

"It usually was thrown out of gear for two or three days after each big raid," he declared.

Thousands of wrecked railway cars are scattered over the Vileneuv-St. Georges yards, through which the Germans had to move vast quantities of material. One area three-quarters of a mile square is almost a solid mass of crumpled cars and locomotives and twisted rails.

The heart of Paris around the Eiffel Tower was never touched. Few if any of the historic buildings suffered any damage.

Book Of Remembrance

Commemorates Work Of Canadian Engineers Killed In Last War

Grace Melvin, well-known Vancouver artist, has completed a Book of Remembrance for the Military Engineers' Association of Canada, which will shortly be sent to Ottawa and eventually will find its place in St. Paul's Cathedral, London.

The beautifully bound and illustrated volume contains the names of the 2,004 Canadian engineers who fell in the First Great War.

For more than two years Miss Melvin, head of the department of design at the Vancouver Art School, has devoted her leisure time to working on the designing, lettering and illuminating of the book. Bound in red English morocco the 40-page volume measures 19 by 14 inches. On the front cover a large crest is modelled in relief with lettering and an intricate badge stamped in gold on the red leather.

Miss Melvin, who specializes in illumination design and lettering was designer of the handsome illuminated address presented by the city of Vancouver to King George and Queen Elizabeth when they visited Vancouver in 1939.

The Book of Remembrance will be placed in a niche in St. Paul's Cathedral specially reserved for this Dominion. It will be one of the duties of the custodian of the Cathedral, chapel to exhibit the volume to relatives of those whose names appear in it.

Has Proved Success

Combined Immunization Against Whooping Cough And Diphtheria Is Advised

Studies show that infants can be immunized successfully against diphtheria and whooping cough at the same time. The Health League of Canada reported, quoting an article by the Illinois investigators in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

"Because diphtheria and whooping cough are most prevalent and serious in the first years of life, it seemed logical that immunization against the two diseases should be attempted at the same time. . . . The investigators are quoted. The report is based on injections given 649 infants averaging eight months in age. Three doses were given each child. Three-week intervals between doses yielded a higher percentage of immunity responses than dosage one week apart. Ninety-seven per cent. of the children on the three-week-interval dosage tested immune to diphtheria and 72 per cent. had high immunity tests for whooping cough. After a stimulating dose of pertussis vaccine, the whooping cough percentage rose to 95. Reactions were transient and usually mild.

The three investigators said that "No infant so injected during the past five years . . . is known to have contracted either diseases."

Telegraph and telephone wires strung along highways average 208 pounds per mile.

Becoming Well Known

Maple Leaf Suggested As Mark For Canadian Made Goods

Canada's flag—the Red Ensign with the Dominion's coat of arms—has become known among the natives but the Maple Leaf design probably will be the banner under which trade will march to the corners of the world.

Officials say there is general agreement that the maple leaf means Canada when it appears on a truck, a tin of salmon or any other product in distant places. One suggestion is that all export goods leaving Canada should bear the Maple Leaf in addition to the trade mark and label of the manufacturer.

Goods sent out under the mutual aid program bear markings showing they are from Canada and the same may be done with supplies provided for the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration.

The Maple Leaf on a plow provided under mutual aid for U.N.R.R.A. will be the same emblem when he can begin purchasing his own supplies after the war.

Unless there is some simple universal emblem for Canada and the goods she supplies, officials think that any advertising which might be obtained from the contribution to world reconstruction will be of little value.

An alligator can crush almost anything with its powerful jaws, yet, once closed, a man can hold them shut with one hand.

When Children Die

In Parents Cases Negligence Of Cause Is The Cause

The tragic death of children in an English community when a military airplane crashed in their midst aroused widespread pity and sympathy. Ironically, nothing has been said about some 240 children in England and Wales who were choked to death by diphtheria in four weeks ending April 29 last—or the hundreds of other British children who have fallen victims to preventable diseases this year. Are our tears to be confined to those children who die dramatically?

According to statistical reports, there were 2,420 cases of diphtheria in England and Wales during the four weeks mentioned. About 10 per cent. of diphtheria cases today are fatal. Many of the patients who recover suffer serious complications.

Thus, like falling aircraft or enemy missiles, infectious diseases take their toll in dead and maimed. The difference is this: All the valor and skill of the armed forces, and all that parents can do, cannot protect all children against the violence of war or accidents associated with warfare. But loving parents can and should protect their little ones against preventable diseases for which simple, safe immunization procedures are available.

Our tears for the little children who died and were maimed in the crash of the airplane cannot bring them back. But we can protect children against diseases which kill and maim just as surely as violent accidents associated with war. This applies in Canada as well as in the British Isles.

BAKED SQUASH WITH MEAT

LOAF
Cut 2 lbs. Hubbard squash in half, remove seeds; brush with Mazola. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 15 minutes. Remove from oven and pack in the following meat mixture. Return to oven and continue baking till meat loaf is cooked.

1 lb. smoked ham, or cottage cheese
1 lb. fresh pork, uncooked
1 egg
1 cup cracker crumbs
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 tablespoon corn syrup
Run meat through coarse knife of food chopper; add unbeaten egg, cracker crumbs, pepper, mustard and corn syrup. Shape into a ball and place firmly into squash. Bake in moderate oven. Serves 8.

A quick and easy dessert can be made by placing a layer of graham cracker crumbs in the bottom of custard cups or small sauce dishes, then a layer of applesauce, and another layer of crumbs. If desired, a layer of custard may be placed on top of a maraschino cherry in the middle. It's tasty, a real ration and time-saver for war busy housewives.

Under the new arrangement, civilian air letters may be sent to many commonwealth countries at a special rate of 10 cents.

Col. Mulock said the arrangement "may well mark the commencement of a new idea in civilian trans-oceanic air mail communication."
